PROPTEK
AFRIKA
2017

PROPERTY, TECHNOLOGY
AND INNOVATION SUMMIT

EASTPARK MALL
MAY 19, 2017

CONFERENCE • SUMMIT

PropTek is Africa's premier networking and informational event for real estate innovators. We invite the world's leading property innovators and investors to co-host a full day of talks on the changing face of the industry as technology—through the application of apps, dashboard and cloud platforms— becomes a defining force.

The digitalization of the property industry is having an impact on all aspects of real estate:

- investment
- risk
- asset management
- facility management
- sales and marketing
- home systems
- branding
- design and arch
- e-brokerage
- biometrics
- energy/security
- crowdfunding
- sharing economy
- and much more.

This summit is for serious investors and property professionals that need to stay on the cusp of technology and innovation as it relates to the property industry.
